The image displays three sequential screenshots of the OccupationalTherapy.com website interface for the Educational Access sign-up and renewal process.

Top Screenshot: Shows the 'Educational Access' page. It includes the site logo, navigation links (Continuing Education, Resources, Group Pricing, Why Continued), and a 'Log In' button. The main heading is 'Educational Access', followed by 'Activate your FREE student membership'. A paragraph explains the benefit: 'OccupationalTherapy.com is proud to offer OT students free educational access to our robust course library. Take as many courses as you want!'. It lists included features: 'Courses are presented by industry-leading experts and offered in multiple convenient formats. Membership includes unlimited access to online course exams, automated grading, and transcripts. (CEUs are not included with this membership, and transcripts do not display CEUs/hours completed.)'. A red 'Get Started' button is prominent. A 'Please Note' section states: 'Only students are eligible for Educational Access memberships. A paid membership is required. If you are not a student; if you are taking courses for the purposes of certification or to meet licensure requirements; or if you need to earn CEUs. Get unlimited CEU access for just $99 per year!'. A 'Log In' button is also present.

Middle Screenshot: Shows the 'Become a Member' section. It has three tabs: 'Create Account', 'Payment Info', and 'Finish'. The 'Create Account' tab is active. It prompts the user to 'Create an Account' and provides a link to 'Sign In' if they already have an account. There are input fields for 'First Name' and 'Last Name'.

Bottom Screenshot: Shows the 'Educational Access' page with the 'Payment Info' tab active. It displays the 'Order Summary' and 'Membership Info'. The 'Order Summary' shows '1-Year Membership - $0' and 'Valid promotional code. No credit card information required.' The 'Membership Info' section explains that all paid memberships are an automatic renewal annual subscription service, with an annual subscription fee charged at the stated amount, per our terms and conditions, until the user cancels their subscription. It provides contact information for the customer service team. A checkbox for 'I accept these terms and conditions and acknowledge that my paid membership will automatically renew at the end of my subscription.' is present. A 'CCPA Privacy Notice' link is also visible. A red 'Pay $0.00' button is at the bottom.
